Additional information I may add.

Way too short!

Too much unnecessary information and not in your own words!

'Goldilocks and the Three Bears' is about three bears, a Papa Bear, a Mama Bear and a Baby Bear. They live in a two story house, with a thatched roof, a brown door, two windows, which is somewhere deep in the woods, surrounded by trees. The bears ate breakfast together every day, and had a different bowl each, to eat their porridge out of. The big bowl was Papa Bears, the medium sized was Mama Bears and the small one was Baby Bears. They would rest on chairs after eating, and then would sleep at night time in their own beds. The big bed was Papa Bears, the medium sized one was Mama Bears and the smallest bed was Baby Bear's.

One morning the three bears decided to go for a walk to let their porridge cool down. While they were gone Goldilocks came to their house and noticed no one was home. She went inside and tried to eat Papa Bears' porridge, but it was too hot. She tried Mama Bears, but it was too cold and then she tried Baby Bears. It was just right, so she ate it all up! Goldilocks then decided to take a rest in the living room but no chair was right. When she sat in Baby Bear's chair, it broke! Goldilocks yawned as she was getting tired, so she went to the bedroom to take a rest. One bed was too big, one was too soft, but baby bears bed was just right! Goldilocks fell asleep.

The 3 bears came home and realise that someone had ate their porridge, broke their chair. When they went upstairs they found Goldilocks in Baby Bears' bed! Goldilocks got a fright and ran out of the house. The bears never saw her again!
